The retreat offers limited spaces and includes various amenities to ensure an enjoyable and rejuvenating experience. The package includes all-inclusive 5-star accommodations, which means that your lodging, meals, and certain activities are covered in the overall cost.

Flights are also included in the package, which means that your transportation to and from Cape Verde's Boa Vista will be taken care of. This ensures convenience and ease of travel for participants.

Additionally, the retreat offers a day cruise, providing an opportunity to explore the beautiful coastal areas of Boa Vista. This can be a memorable experience, allowing you to enjoy the ocean, beaches, and potentially engage in water activities.

To further enhance your well-being and relaxation, the retreat includes spa and well-being services. These services can vary but may include massages, facials, yoga classes, and other wellness activities. They are designed to help you unwind and rejuvenate.
